What's Actually Missing

A Capsule Gap Finder

This is the page that saves you money. A gap is not an item you don't own. A gap is a problem you can't solve with what you already have. There is a difference, and the difference is usually the thing standing between an organized closet and another impulse buy.

Work through this after you've finished the inventory worksheet, while what you already own is fresh in your mind.

Three Lenses to Look Through

Lens	What to consider	What I notice
Climate	What the weather actually does where you live, not what you wish it did
Real life	Home, work, church, travel, and the people you take care of

The Quick Check

Question	Yes / No	What's missing
Do I have three full outfits for each part of my life that needs them?
Can most of my pieces be worn with at least two others?
Am I covered for the temperature swings my week actually involves?

Real Gaps vs. Wants

Gap I think I have	Problem it would solve	Real gap or want?

Remember: If it doesn't solve a real problem, it isn't a gap.
